

For ancient Greeks, Delphi was considered to be the center of the world. Renowned kings, warriors and philosophers visited the place to see the famous Pythia, the prophetess, to advise them about their future. At Amalia Delphi you do not have to wonder about the future of your holidays. Rest assured that you will have an unforgettable stay!

With its modern architecture, built in complete harmony with the surroundings, at the foot of the mountain, offers you a breathtaking view of the valley all the way to the sea and the beautiful village of Galaxidi. Entering the lobby you will be owed by the scenery and most probably you will not want to leave the place. Spacious, comfortably appointed rooms, restaurant offering local flavors that faces the pool and the gardens, and a bar with fireplace where you can relax while enjoying your drinks.
